The motion passed.

4. INTRODUCTIONS AND RECOGNITIONS

Brent Carbajal, Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs, introduced Robert Squires, who recently began his position as Vice Provost for Outreach and Continuing Education (OCE). Carbajal noted that Squires will lead the team that extends Western’s diverse educational opportunities throughout the state and beyond, including online.

Melynda Huskey, Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services introduced Shelli Soto, recently hired as the Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management and charged with designing strategy for undergraduate enrollment, admissions, recruitment, and financial aid and scholarships at Western. Sislena Ledbetter, Executive Director for Counseling, Health and Wellness was on the agenda to be introduced, but was called away on an urgent matter. She will be introduced at the October 2019 meeting.

5. BOARD CHAIR REPORT

Earl Overstreet, Chair, Board of Trustees, expressed that the topic of the board chair report would be the Western journey. He observed that with the adoption of the strategic plan, Western is on a journey of sorts over the next six years, and that he had recently come across some insightful leadership rules created by local tribal communities that speak to our current Western journey.

“The Ten Rules of the Canoe” were developed by the Quileute canoe contingent for a Northwest Experiential Education Conference in 1990.

1. Every stroke we take is one less we have to make.

   Keep going! Even against the most relentless wind or retrograde tide, somehow a canoe moves forward. This mystery can only be explained by the fact that each pull forward is real movement and not delusion.

2. There is to be no abuse of self or others.

   Respect and trust cannot exist in anger. It has to be thrown overboard, so the sea can cleanse it. It has to be washed off the hands and cast into the air, so the stars can take care of it. We always look back at the shadows we pulled through, amazed at how powerful we thought those dangers were.

3. Be flexible.

   The adaptable animal survives. If you get tired, ship your paddle and rest. If you get hungry, put in on the beach and eat a few oysters. If you can’t figure one way to make it, do something new. When the wind confronts you, sometimes you’re supposed to go the other way.
4. The gift of each enriches all.

Every story is important. The bow, the stern, the skipper, the power puller in the middle - everyone is part of the movement. The elder sits in her cedar at the front, singing her paddle song, praying for us all. The weary paddler resting is still ballast. And there is always that time when the crew needs some joke, some remark, some silence to keep going, and the least likely person provides.

5. We all pull and support each other.

Nothing occurs in isolation. When we aren't in the family of a canoe, we are not ready for whatever comes. The family can argue, mock, ignore each other at its worst, but the family will never let itself sink. A canoe that lets itself sink is certainly wiser never to leave the beach. When we know that we are not alone in our actions, we also know we are lifted up by everyone else.

6. A hungry person has no charity.

Always nourish yourself. The bitter person, thinking that sacrifice means self-destruction, shares mostly anger. A paddler who doesn't eat at the feasts doesn't have enough strength to paddle in the morning. Take that sandwich they throw at you at 2:00 A.M.! The gift of who you are only enters the world when you are strong enough to own it.

7. Experiences are not enhanced through criticism.

Who we are, how we are, what we do, why we continue, flourish with tolerance. The canoe fellows who are grim go one way. The men and women who find the lightest flow may sometimes go slow, but when they arrive they can still sing. And they have gone all over the sea, into the air with the seagulls, under the curve of the wave with the dolphin and down to the whispering shells, under the continental shelf. Withdrawing the blame acknowledges how wonderful a part of it all every one of us really is.

8. The journey is what we enjoy.

Although the start is exciting and the conclusion gratefully achieved, it is the long, steady process we remember. Being part of the journey requires great preparation; being done with a journey requires great awareness; being on the journey, we are much more than ourselves. We are part of the movement of life. We have a destination, and for once, our will is pure, our goal is to go on.

9. A good teacher allows the students to learn.

We can berate each other, try to force each other to understand, or we can allow each paddler to gain their awareness through the ongoing journey. Nothing sustains us like that sense of potential that we can deal with things. Each paddler learns to deal with the person in front, the person behind, the water, the air, the energy, the blessing of the eagle.

10. When given any choice at all, be a worker bee - make honey!

Chair Overstreet welcomed new student trustee Hunter Stuehm and noted that the student trustee role allows the board to learn from the perspective and insight of students at the board level. Trustee Stuehm expressed excitement about the opportunity to serve on the Board of Trustees.

The motion passed.

6. UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT REPORT

President Randhawa reported that in the past year 46 new faculty have been hired for the upcoming academic year. He added that the newly hired faculty come from some of the best institutions in the nation and that Western will benefit from their research and expertise. He noted that the Provost’s Diversity and Inclusion Hiring Initiative, designed to help search committees center diversity and inclusion throughout the search process, has yielded positive results, and will be renewed as a pilot for the third year. He reported that of the offers that were made, seventy percent were made to women and forty percent were made to individuals belonging to ethnic minorities. He added that this will help to diversify Western's faculty base and continue to attract the very best we can from the best institutions.

7. ASSOCIATED STUDENTS REPORT

Lani Defiesta, Associated Students (AS) President was not present for the meeting, but representatives from the Associated Students Board of Directors were present to introduce themselves. This included Annie Byers, Program Coordinator for the AS Board, Leti Romo, Assistant Director of Student Representation and Governance, and Emily Gerhardt, AS Vice President for Student Services.

8. FINANCE, AUDIT AND ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT

John Meyer, Chair, Finance, Audit and Enterprise Risk Management Committee (FARM), reported that the Perkins Loan Program which was originally established in the 1950’s to provide need based lower interest loans to students will be phased out, due to non-renewal in congress. He reported that the program will continue servicing the $8.6 million in outstanding Perkins loans, but with the closure of the program Western will be returning the initial investment of $7 million Federal Capital Contribution (FCC) to the Department of Education (DOE) as loans are repaid rather than continuing to fund new loans.

Trustee Meyer reported that within the implementation plan of Western’s Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) Framework five enterprise risks have been identified by the committee: 1) Financial Stewardship, 2) Campus Climate, 3) IT Systems, Infrastructure and Governance, 4) Comprehensive Capital and Space Utilization Planning, and 5) Buildings and Infrastructure. It was noted that the executive leadership will present the first ERM Annual Report to the full Board in December 2019.

Meyer reported that the Clery Compliance report from an outside consultant has been completed and recommendations are being incorporated into operations. He said the Minority and Women Business Enterprises Inclusion Plan continues to increase vendor spending and inclusion goals for the upcoming academic year. In closing he noted that the FARM Committee is in the process of a self-evaluation to determine opportunities to improve effectiveness and communicate better with the full board.

9. STUDENT SUCCESS COMMITTEE

Trustee Mo West, Chair, Student Success Committee reported that the committee conducted a self-assessment with regard to the last year, and in the next year will be more intentional in crafting its agenda to better align with the strategic plan. She reported that the committee is looking to further investigate and encourage the implementation of best practices to support student success at Western. She added that the committee hopes to build positive relationships with students by engaging on campus as well.

10. ENROLLMENT MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING: A PRIMER

Shelli Soto, Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management, presented an overview of the purpose, goals and strategies involved with enrollment management. Soto explained that the goals of Enrollment Management are ultimately student-centered, creating an educational environment that is more diverse, provides broader opportunities for access and success, and advances the quality of the educational experience for all. This is also valuable in creating a more globally aware citizen and work force for the state of Washington. She noted that a commitment to strategic enrollment management is key to advance the goals of the Western, and that she was pleased by the university leadership’s support and advocacy for this role.

Soto provided an overview of the evolution of enrollment management over the last several decades and how it has developed into a collaborative approach that brings together the academic and administrative portions of the university. She noted that the goals for enrollment management at Western will include connecting operational strategies with institutional goals and mission, creating closer collaboration with the entire university community, conducting environmental scans, creating a living plan that is adaptable, and building both long-term and short-term strategies.

11. WATERFRONT UPDATE

Donna Gibbs, Vice President for Marketing and Community Relations reported that the conversation regarding a shared vision for the water front district is continuing through a collaborative working group involving the Port and Western. She noted that the focus of the collaborative working group is a set of facilities that would expand employer base and provide opportunities for applied learning, integrated research in graduate and undergraduate programs, and desirable jobs for Western alumni, and residents for Whatcom County and beyond. She added that Brad Johnson, Dean, College of Science and Engineering (and member of the working group) has been instrumental in leveraging existing academic program partnerships to facilitate introductions between Port of Bellingham staff and private industry in sectors such as naval architecture, marine engineering services, climate research laboratories, and cybersecurity firms.

Gibbs concluded that the shared vision for the waterfront district will be foster innovative community, create an incubator for new and expanding business, and nurture scientific and technological ventures, in addition to being a base for existing businesses with a focus on renewable energy. She added there will be a more detailed presentation of the development plan at the October meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Trustee Overstreet announced a fifteen minute break at 9:25 am and the board reconvened at 9:41 am

12. APPROVAL OF 2020 SUPPLEMENTAL OPERATING BUDGET REQUEST

Brent Carbajal, Provost, Vice President of Academic Affairs and Becca Kenna Schenk, Executive Director of Government Relations provided an overview of the 2020 Supplemental Budget. Carbajal noted that the focus of the Western on the Peninsulas proposal is the result of conversations that included Western’s community college partners, legislators and other community representatives in the region. He noted that the most important focus of the proposal is that the programs there that currently operate on a self-sustaining budget model will be funded to operate on a state-supported tuition model. He said this would allow for lower resident tuition and is critical to increasing student enrollment in the region. He added the request also includes funding for infrastructure that includes management, administration, faculty, and staff. He noted this request is a first step in expansion for Western on the Peninsulas.

Kenna-Schenk added that the request will resonate well with legislators, as the recent legislative session provided full funding of the Washington College Grant (formerly known as the State Need Grant), increasing state supported financial aid for resident students.

Ted Castro, Interim Director, Budget Office, reported that the other two items on the supplemental operating request include Alignment of Professional/Exempt Information Technology Salaries and addressing Impacts from Proposed Changes to State of Washington’s Overtime Rules. He noted that these two items are being considered by all state institutions for requests within their supplemental budget requests.

MOTION 08-03-2019 Trustee Meyer moved that the Board of Trustees of Western Washington University, upon the recommendation of the President, approves a $1,925,000 decision package for Transitioning Peninsulas Programs to State Support, a $347,000 maintenance level decision package for Alignment of Information Technology Salaries, and a $185,000 maintenance level decision package for Addressing Impacts from Proposed Changes to State of Washington’s Overtime Rules. Please note that the supplemental budget request is for a single fiscal year. If approved, the amount will be adjusted in the next biennial budget process to a full two year biennial total. With concurrence of the Board Chair, the President may make adjustments to the approved budget request in response to subsequent instructions from the Office of Financial Management, to advance consistency among the submissions of Washington’s six public baccalaureate institutions, or other adjustments as appropriate.

The motion passed.

The Board of Trustees will discuss strategic opportunities and challenges for Western in light of national and regional trends in higher education, and achieving the goals in Western’s strategic plan.
TO: Members of the Board of Trustees

FROM: President Sabah Randhawa

DATE: October 10, 2019

SUBJECT: Discussion with Senator Emily Randall, Chair of the Senate Higher Education and Workforce Development Committee

PURPOSE: Discussion Item

Purpose of Submittal:

State Senator Emily Randall (D-Bremerton) will be joining the Board for a discussion about the upcoming 2020 legislative session, Western on the Peninsulas, and other policy issues related to higher education.

Background:

Biography

Sen. Emily Randall was elected to the state Senate in November 2018 to represent the 26th legislative district, which encompasses the southern portion of the Kitsap Peninsula, including Bremerton, Port Orchard and Gig Harbor. Senator Randall is the chair of the Senate Higher Education & Workforce Development Committee and the vice chair of the Senate Health & Long Term Care Committee. She also serves on the Senate Transportation Committee.

Senator Randall was born and raised on the Kitsap Peninsula in a hardworking union family. As a community organizer and advocate for health care and education, she is focused on putting the people of the 26th District first. Growing up in Port Orchard, Emily learned the value of education from her parents and her teachers. Her dad worked at Puget Sound Naval Shipyard and her mom started a career as a para-educator when Emily was in high school.

As the first in her family to attend a four-year college, she knows how important it is to make the path to higher education more accessible. She is dedicated to using her position on the Senate Higher Education & Workforce Development Committee to prioritize affordable college tuition, apprenticeship and job training programs to prepare students for living-wage jobs at local businesses. During the 2019 legislative session, Senator Randall sponsored SB 5800, which establishes pilot programs at certain public baccalaureates and college districts to assist students experiencing homelessness and students who were in the foster care system when they graduated high school. WWU was selected as one of the pilot institutions.

Since graduating from Wellesley College, Emily has dedicated herself to expanding education opportunities and access to affordable health care for women, children and LGBTQ folks around the country. This cause is personal for her: Emily’s sister Olivia was born with severe developmental and physical disabilities, and it was their family’s access to Medicaid that made it possible for Olivia to live a happy life in their family home for 19 years. Emily believes that all families should have access to the health care they need to keep their families together, and no one should be at risk of bankruptcy because of their health care needs. She is proud to serve her community in the state Senate and to put people first.

Strategic Discussion Topics and Questions:

1. Thank you for your leadership to pass the Workforce Education and Investment Act (HB 2158) during the 2019 Legislative Session. The historic investments in financial aid will significantly improve access to higher education for current and future Western students, as well as students across the state.

2. As chair of the Senate Higher Education & Workforce Development Committee, what are your legislative priorities for higher education during the 2020 session and beyond?

3. As an elected official from the Kitsap Peninsula, what do you view as the primary challenges and opportunities for expanding access to higher education to residents of the Peninsulas?
